Lodge Meets With Senate Committee

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge went before a closed meeting of two top Senate committees today to brief them on South Viet Nam.

It was one of the last of the Washington chores the resigned ambassador was winding up before plunging into a round of political engagements in behalf of presidential aspirant William W. Scranton.

Lodge told reporters that he had a long talk by telephone Monday night with Scranton, in whose behalf he gave up his Far East post.

Lodge informed newsmen that he had no immediate plans to visit with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, but that he hoped to get in touch with him later.

He had intimated that he hopes to get public support from Eisenhower for Scranton's bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

After Lodge's appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees, he had an engagement for a luncheon at the Capitol with Republican senators.

Lodge returned to Washington Monday, and declared that the South Viet Nam war is "on the track."

He takes the view that U.S. policy there can not become a campaign issue—an attitude at variance with that of some other Republicans.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge, expanding on his view that he doesn't see how U.S. policy in the Viet Nam war could become a campaign issue, says "I don't see how it gets votes—how you can make it a good issue."

He adds: "If you have a disaster in foreign relations then that becomes an issue whether the politicians make it one or not. Happily I see no prospect of any disaster."

Lodge, who resigned after 10 months as ambassador to South Viet Nam, returned Monday to help Pennsylvania Gv. William W. Scranton in his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

An Audubon Society Is Organized

A Audubon Society was organized by a local group last week in a meeting at the First National's Community Room and those present agreed to join the Arkansas Audubon Federation. Dues are $2 annually.

Membership entitles each person to visit with other clubs in the state for field trips and group discussions. Life lists of birds were explained and given to members. More will be ordered and those wishing to begin such a list may pick them up at the next meeting, which will be announced.

The organization is open to all interested persons. For details telephone 7-3166.

The group voted to remind the public that shooting birds is unlawful. It was pointed out that numerous birds had been shot in a local cemetery which seems to be a hunting place for vandals.

Finds Psychiatrists Worst Bored at Cocktail Party — They Just Keep on Talking

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions: Bowlegged girls have less trouble getting dates than girls who are knock-kneed.

The dogs that are the most fun to own are poodles, fox terriers and dachshunds. Bloodhounds always look like they have just lost their last and only friend.

The loneliest sound in the world is a clarinet played late at night all alone by a fellow who knows one end of the thing from the other.

Nothing is impossible to a man who can learn to like breakfast cereal with yogurt on it. My idea of a good way to wake up in the morning is to down about eight ounces of a mixture of tomato and sauerkraut juices. Sounds awful; tastes great.

Psychiatrists are the worst of all cocktail party bores. After listening to people talk to them all day, they can't shut up themselves all evening.

One thing I have never met, and don't expect to, is a U.S. senator with an inferiority complex.

What this country needs is a longer football season and a shorter baseball season. A lot of people who are tired of professional baseball hesitate to say so for fear that it sounds unpatriotic.

People who habitually send clever greeting cards get a reputation for witlessness they don't deserve. In most cases they are too shiftless mentally to sit down and write a warm and readable letter.

It is hard to tell which is more dangerous to the nation — the cold war or the three-hour business lunch.

Why is it you never hear so much about a fellow after all his friends get together and give him a testimonial dinner?

Most crooks are underweight. Fat people aren't necessarily more honest by nature; they have just found out that they aren't fast enough on their feet to be anything else.

Search on for 12 Missing Americans

By BERNARD BROWN
HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—U.S. boats and planes were searching off Bermuda's south coast today for 12 American airmen missing after the collision of two Air Force planes during a space training mission.

The planes plunged into the Atlantic Monday as parachuting airmen were running a test rescue operation for the two-man Gemini space project.

There were 24 men in the two planes. Seven were rescued. Five bodies had been recovered Monday night.

The survivors were reported in good condition.

The two planes, each carrying 12 men, brushed wings as Air Force photographers in small boats below were shooting a para-rescue training film. A Gemini capsule was in the water below, and the planes were dropping men to simulate its recovery.

A spokesman at Kindley Air Force Base, four miles from the scene, said there were indications all seven survivors had jumped before the crash as part of the scheduled test rescue operation.

The planes were flying at about 1,500 feet on the same course when they touched, a witness said.

Each was a propeller driven plane.

Karam Heads Anti-Gambling Move

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—James T. Karam, Little Rock clothier and lay speaker in the Baptist Church, revealed Monday the existence of an anti-gambling organization composed of church lay leaders.

Karam said the group, called "Keep Arkansas a Christian," would oppose a proposed constitutional amendment to legalize gambling at Hot Springs.

Karam said he started the organization several weeks ago by sending 160 letters to church leaders asking if they would be interested in such an organization.

He received 158 replies, he said.

Next week, Karam said, a mail campaign will be started by sending questionnaires to 5,600 ministers asking them to supply the names of 40 members of their congregations who would work against the amendment.

400 Sailors Join Search in Mississippi

By MICHAEL SMITH
PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—The search for the three civil rights workers who vanished nine days ago was stepped up today at the direction of President Johnson.

The Mississippi Highway Patrol also made it clear it was in this red-clay hill country of east central Mississippi to stay until authorities find out what happened to the missing trio.

Rita Schwerner, 22, wife of Michael Schwerner of Brooklyn, one of the missing men, asked the President Monday to send 4,000 men to Mississippi to join in the search.

Mrs. Schwerner, after meeting with the President at the White House, told newsmen Johnson advised her he couldn't send so many.

Schwerner, 24; Andrew Goodman, 20, another white New Yorker; and James Chaney, 22, a Negro from nearby Meridian, were last seen June 21 when they were freed from jail here after posting a $20 bond in a traffic case.

Before Mrs. Schwerner visited the White House, press secretary George Reedy told reporters that efforts to find the trio had been stepped up and expanded.

Mrs. Schwerner said the President assured her that the federal government is "doing everything in its power."

The President, Mrs. Schwerner added, said if he "considered it useful to send more men, then he would send more."

Federal and state authorities, joined by 100 sailors from the Navy airfield at Meridian, continued their search in the hills and snake-infested swamps of Neshoba County.

State game wardens, using radio-equipped skiffs, dragged the muddy Pearl River and other bodies of water in the area.

"We've covered 55 miles of the Pearl itself and haven't found even a net," said Dewitt Hutton of the State Game and Fish Commission.

The FBI ordered several thousand circulars of the three youths distributed in a five-state area. The circulars asked anyone with information to call FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover or the nearest FBI office.

The circulars went to Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Arkansas as well as Mississippi.

The only clue to the baffling disappearance was the finding last Tuesday of the charred hulk of the station wagon driven by the three youths.

Castro's Sister Defects and Charges Cuban Leader Has Sold Out Nation to Russia

By OSCAR KAUFMANN
MEXICO CITY (AP)—Fidel Castro's sister Juanita has defected, charging that the Cuban prime minister betrayed his revolution and sold out Cuba to the Soviet Union.

"The people of Cuba are nailed to a cross of torment imposed by international communism," Juanita Castro Ruz said Monday night in an emotion-charged statement to Mexican television commentator Guillermo Vela.

With tears in her eyes and her voice breaking, the 41-year-old woman read a six-page denunciation of the Cuban regime headed by her brothers Fidel and Raul.

Miss Castro, one of seven Castro brothers and sisters, refused to say how she came to Mexico from Cuba. Her sister Emma has lived in Mexico City since her marriage three years ago to a Mexican engineer.

Miss Castro said she had supported her brother's revolution against dictator Fulgencio Batista by collecting money, arms and medicine in Cuba and abroad. After his victory she dedicated herself to building schools and hospitals, she said, but she soon realized Castro had abandoned the ideals of his revolution and "we were being deceived."

She said there are now 75,000 political prisoners in Cuba and the island is "an enormous prison surrounded by water."

Deteriorating conditions in the last few months finally forced her to flee, she said.

She reported the Cuban people lack food, clothing and other essentials and wonder what happened to the $63 million in medicines which Castro received in exchange for prisoners captured in the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

Shots Fired in Strike at Conway

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—A non-striking employee of the strike-bound Virco Manufacturing Co. here said Monday that his car and truck were shot at by someone with a shotgun early Monday morning.

Ben Franklin, of near Greenbrier, said someone drove by his house about 4 a.m. and fired two shots. The blasts broke out a window in the car, Franklin said.

Franklin said he shot four times at the car with a .22 caliber pistol.

He said two hours earlier a group of persons approached his house on foot but fled when he called out to them.

Four other non-striking workers reported that windows had been broken out of their car.

The Virco plant was struck June 15 by workers of the United Steelworkers Union. Kenneth Loooper of Hot Springs, a union representative, said the strike was the result of 2½ months of contract negotiations in which no agreement was reached.

Two pickets of the union were struck last week by cars driven by non-striking workers as the pickets walked near the plant entrance.

One of them, Joseph A. Harrisfield of Greenbrier, is still hospitalized.

Floating Oil Rig Blast Kills 4, 13 Are Missing

By LOUIS MILLINER
MORGAN CITY, La. (AP)—An explosion and fire roared through a floating oil rig in pre-dawn darkness today, plunging the multi-million dollar apparatus into the depths of the Gulf of Mexico. At least four persons were killed.

Another 13 persons or more were missing.

Twenty-five survivors were brought to Lakewood Hospital here. Some were burned but a hospital spokesman said all were in satisfactory condition.

The dead were not immediately identified.

Helicopters ferried the survivors to this coastal fishing town about 70 air miles west of New Orleans.

The rig sank in 180 feet of water, about 15 minutes after the explosion and wind-whipped flames blanketed the vessel.

Some of the first survivors to arrive at Lakewood Hospital here were unconscious. Others were able to walk away from the rescue helicopters.

At least 42 men were aboard the twin-hulled rig, which was operating 78 miles southwest of Morgan City in the area known as Block 273 of Eugene Island.

The 260-foot long rig—actually a drilling ship—is owned by reading & Bates of Morgan City. It had moved to the explosion site only Monday.

Half the men on the rig, the C. P. Baker, were asleep when the explosion occurred about 3:30 a.m.

The first survivors to reach here said the on-duty crew hit a shallow high pressure pocket of gas while drilling in the Gulf of Mexico at 640 feet. The gas

Negro Group Taunts Police in Chicago

By SEYMOUR HERSH
CHICAGO (AP)—More than 300 Negroes paraded on the South Side early today, jeering and taunting police, and daring them to arrest the marchers.

It was the second successive early morning civil rights demonstration. Leaders of the march promised frequent similar parades during the summer.

Today's march was called to rally support for picketing of Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania who will speak in downtown Chicago today. Civil rights leaders said 1,000 Negroes will picket Scranton, who is seeking the Republican nomination for president.

Before the Negroes paraded, they met in the open air at 47th Street and South Parkway to hear leaders of ACT, a nationwide group of civil rights organizations.

Seven of the leaders were arrested and charged with conducting a public meeting without a police permit. The arrested included Jesse Gray, 40, co-ordinator of Harlem's Council on Housing and a leader of New York City's rent strike; and Lawrence Landry, national organizer of ACT.

The leaders were taken to a nearby police station. The crowd surged behind police cars, shouting at police for making the arrests.

The crowd milled around the police station for three hours, until the seven were released on $25 bond each.

Wild Bear Shot in Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A wild bear wandered onto the Forest Heights Road east of here Monday, and state Game and Fish Commission personnel bagged a new trophy for the agency's Little Rock museum.

Deputy Sheriff Jake White said a distraught woman who failed to give her name reported the bear to him. He called game warden George Hatzakas, who contacted the commission.

Gene Rush, chief of the agency's game division, shot three tranquilizing pellets into the bear with no effect, then decided to kill it with a rifle after a crowd gathered. The bear was becoming angry, he said.

Rush said the commission has released bears in northern Arkansas, but the one he killed Monday was not one of them.

Floating Oil Rig

began seeping up into the rig. "The floor began to buckle and we knew it was time to get off," said one survivor.

Some had gotten on the "Delta Service," a workboat alongside, when sparks on the rig touched off the explosion.

Those on board were trapped momentarily by flames. Wind whipped the flames away from one side of the rig and some of the men were able to jump into the water.

"It stood up on its end and down she went," said another survivor, describing how the drilling rig sank in more than 100 feet of water.

A spokesman for Reading & Bates here said the C. P. Baker, built last year, cost about $8 million. He said the firm has four other rigs operating in the Gulf.

The crew slept aboard the rig, with each shift having separate quarters. The men have 12-hour tours.

Louisiana's coastal waters are dotted with oil rigs and offshore drilling platforms.

Some of the wells are drilled from stationary platforms built on the floor of the Gulf. Others are brought in by floating rigs, like the C. P. Baker.

Declares JFK Not Victim of Conspiracy

By EUGENE KRAMER
WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy declared Monday night that his brother, the assassinated president, was not the victim of a conspiracy or of communism.

The U.S. attorney general told a Polish questioner in Krakow "there is no question" that Lee Harvey Oswald killed President John F. Kennedy and "did it on his own and by himself."

Hieronym Kubiak, 25, head of the Polish Student Union, had asked Kennedy for his version of his brother's assassination in Dallas, Tex., last Nov. 22.

Kennedy replied that Oswald was a "misfit in society" and

120 Criminal Cases Dismissed

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — More than 120 criminal cases were dismissed Monday by Garland Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs on the grounds that the statute of limitations for prosecuting the cases had passed.

The cases dated from January 1951 to December 1962, Dobbs said. He said Prosecutor David Whittington failed to act on the cases in the prescribed length of time.

Whittington said he had pointed out to Dobbs that the cases should be passed on by a grand jury and said Dobbs had refused to call a grand jury to act on them even though he (Whittington) had repeatedly asked him to.

The cases involved charges ranging from robbery to manslaughter against 118 persons.

Lodge Meets

the retiring ambassador at the White House, then went before newsmen with Lodge at his side to express public thanks for his services in Saigon.

In replying to questions submitted to him by Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press, Lodge said "things in Viet Nam started to go better and I felt it was my duty to be here" to help Scranton.

The question had been asked of Lodge in Saigon, but he said he preferred to defer his replies until his resignation became effective Monday.

The questions and Lodge's replies included:

Q. Governor Scranton disagrees with you that the war in South Viet Nam should not be an issue in the campaign. Now that you are supporting him, how do you expect to resolve this difference?

A. I have not said it should not be an issue. I have said I don't see how it could be. I don't see how it gets votes — how you can make it a good issue.

If you have a disaster in foreign relations, then that becomes an issue whether the politicians make it one or not. Happily, I see no prospect of any disaster.

Q. How do you propose to overcome Senator Goldwater's long lead for the nomination? And why did you wait so long to come home to enter the campaign?

A. That's two questions. With respect to the first one, I'm not sure he has such a long lead. I remember when the AP gave Senator Taft a long lead over General Eisenhower in 1952. You can't take the delegate pledges at face value.

(The current AP survey of GOP convention delegates lists 693 first ballot votes for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona — 38 more than the 655 needed for nomination if they stick with him. Of these 118 are from primary election commitments, 257 from delegates instructed by state or district GOP conventions, 62 personally pledged and 256 who favor him. The survey shows 138 for Scranton, none of them bound to him.)

The second question, why did I wait, is really the question, what made me come home early? I was not waiting, nor was I intending to come home this early. But I got messages from friends, people I esteemed, saying that if I came early it might make a difference in Governor Scranton's campaign.

Then things in Viet Nam started to go better and I felt my duty was to be here.

Q. Did the messages come from Governor Scranton and friends of his?

A. No, they came from persons interested in me who wanted to see me do the right thing in this campaign.

Q. There has been much speculation in the United States about the possibility of striking into North Viet Nam and possibly China. Do you favor such strategy?

A. The answer to that question gets into classified information.

Oswald's professed belief in communism did not prompt him to murder the president.

"Ideology in my opinion did not motivate his act," Kennedy said. "It was the single act of an individual protesting against society."

There has been considerable speculation in Europe that the slayings of Kennedy and of Oswald by Dallas cafe owner Jack Ruby were part of a conspiracy.

Aides said it was the first time the attorney general had spoken publicly about who killed his brother.

The question came up during the second day of his visit to Poland. Before leaving the country this afternoon, Kennedy was scheduled to go to Czestochowa, spiritual center of Catholic Poland.

Atlas Centaur Rocket Is Flop Again

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Premature shut-down of the second-stage engine prevented a high energy Atlas-Centaur space rocket from hurling its second stage into orbit today.

The failure could further delay development of Atlas-Centaur — problem child of U.S. rocketry.

The 112-foot tall Atlas Centaur blasted away from Cape Kennedy at 9:04 a.m. and performed flawlessly during the first-stage Atlas flight.

The second stage ignited on schedule. It was to have burned for 6 minutes 17 seconds but radio data showed a shut-down after about 4 minutes. This prevented the 8,200-pound stage from reaching intended orbital speed of 16,000 miles an hour.

Tracking instruments indicated the rocket is being developed to launch unmanned project surveyor spacecraft to the moon next year to make measurements and to scout possible astronaut landing areas. The failure was the second in three test launchings for the vehicle.

But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration claimed some measure of success for today's mission when two major objectives were achieved.

These were ejection of second-stage insulation panels and the restart of the Centaur-Space engine boost pump.

The 112-foot tall Atlas Centaur blasted away from Cape Kennedy at 9:04 a.m. and performed flawlessly during the first-stage Atlas flight.

The second stage ignited on schedule. It was to have burned for 6 minutes 17 seconds but radio data showed a shut-down after about 4 minutes. This prevented the 8,200-pound stage from reaching intended orbital speed of 16,000 miles an hour.

Tracking instruments indicated the rocket is being developed to launch unmanned project surveyor spacecraft to the moon next year to make measurements and to scout possible astronaut landing areas. The failure was the second in three test launchings for the vehicle.

But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration claimed some measure of success for today's mission when two major objectives were achieved.

Dorsey in Visit to Tomato Area

WARREN, Ark. (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Odell Dorsey took his campaign to Bradley and Ashley counties Monday, visiting tomato sheds at Warren and Hermitage.

Dorsey said he he is elected governor he would see that new markets are established to help create diversification of agriculture.

Diversification is the key to the economic future of Arkansas, Dorsey said. He cited Bradley County as a good example of such diversification because it has cotton, timber and tomato crops.

The two will make separate one-hour request appearances before the key Illinois Republican delegation to the July 13 San Francisco convention. Also to appear to Harold Stassen, another candidate for the presidential nomination.

The latest Associated Press poll of delegates lists 693 tentatively committed to Goldwater and 138 for Scranton. Thirty-nine of the 58 Illinois delegates are pledged to Goldwater, 1 to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and 18 uncommitted.

Editor the Star:

"In the Hope Star column 'Letters to the Editor' under date of June 26, 1964, you published a letter from Mrs. W.R. McAfee, R.F.D. 7, Box 620, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, wherein Mrs. McAfee praised Hope for maintaining such a wonderful park."

"I am sure it would be interesting to you, and to your readers, to know that when Attorney J.D. Montgomery, now a retired Methodist Minister of Hope, was Mayor of Hope, and insisted on purchasing Fair Park from a Mr. Hanegan for the price of $1600 that there was much opposition but one of the councilman, the late Dorsey McRae, came to the rescue of Mayor Montgomery and with them both insisting so strongly that the city invest $1600 in the 40 acres of land, in order to avoid the extreme controversy the other councilmen finally acquiescent in the purchase of the 40 acres."

"I am informed by Mr. Montgomery that the opposition said, 'We don't need it. We are throwing away $1600 of the taxpayers' money. It will be a nuisance and a liability for the city to own 40 acres of land out there in the woods. Hanegan is trying to unload his worthless land on the taxpayers at an exorbitant price.'"

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. Thomas Edward Anger

The wedding of Miss Nancy Kathryn Malone, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Frank Malone, formerly of Hope, and Thomas Edward Anger, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Anger of Marysville, Michigan, was recently solemnized in the chapel at Spangdahlem, Germany.

The double wedding ring ceremony was performed by the Wing Chaplain, Major Edmund Puseman, before an altar decorated with arrangements of white carnations, lilies, and greenery, flanked on either side with baskets of white flowers and potted palms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress of white lace over taffeta with round neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her waist-length veil was gathered to a pearl tiara, and she wore a single strand of pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white lilies and carnations.

Miss Lynda Malone was her sister's maid of honor and wore blue silk linen with matching hairpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and carnations.
Captain Maurice Seaver was best man. Candies were lighted by Rickey Puseman and ushers were Patrick Malone, brother of the bride, and Ron Joy.
Traditional processional and recessional music was used, and the organist played "Prayer", "Night Song", and "Calm as the Night" softly during the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Officers' Club. The guest were greeted by the bride's mother, and they were introduced to the receiving line which consisted of the bride and groom and the maid of honor. Miss Diane Weber was in charge of the bride's book, and Miss Diane Burgin dispensed the small bags of rice tied with white satin ribbons.

The bride's table was lovely with arrangements of pastel flowers on either side of the four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. The brunch table was also decorated with arrangements of pastel flowers with the punch bowls on either end.

For going away, the bride changed to a navy and white linen suit to which she pinned an orchid corsage. The couple planned to spend a few days of their honeymoon in the resort city of Bernkastle, Germany, before

Miss Marilyn M. Choniski, Custer Air Force Station, Mich., Colonel and Mrs. William J. Choniski, of Custer Air Force Station, Battle Creek, Mich., announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn M. Choniski, to Dennis I. Downing, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Downing of Trenton, Mich. Miss Choniski is a junior at Western Michigan University.

In January, Mr. Downing received his Bachelor of Science

Degree in psychology at Western Michigan University. He will enter the U. S. Air Force Training School at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, on July 6th, where he will work toward a commission as a second lieutenant.

A September wedding is planned in the Base Chapel at Lackland AFB.
Miss Choniski is the granddaughter of Mrs. E.N. May, 703 West Sixth St., Hope.

U.S., Russia Boxers May Meet Soon

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiations between American and Russian boxing authorities are in the weigh-in stage for what could develop into an unprecedented U.S.-Soviet ring encounter before the 1964 Olympic Games.

If the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union and the Soviet Boxing Federation can resolve several knotty problems, Russian and American boxers may answer the bell sometime in August or September—possibly at the New York World's Fair.

Tass, the Soviet news agency reported Monday that the fight meeting had been set, though a date had not—an announcement branded "premature" by Col. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU.

Col. Hull acknowledged a Russian proposal for the exchange and said American champions would welcome the opportunity for a pre-Olympic test. He added, however, that obstacles to the meeting were legion, perhaps insurmountable.

traveling to Paris for an extended stay before returning to Virginia, where they will live.

Mrs. Anger was graduated, cum laude, in May from Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, D.C., where she finished first in her class. She was an Art Major. The groom was graduated from Michigan State University where he also did a year's graduate study. He is an economist working in Arlington, Virginia at the Center for Naval Analysis of the Franklin Foundation.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Claudia Hutson and Mrs. F. C. Malone of this city.

"DEAR ABBY"

THE POWERS OF SUGGESTION!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I always thought mental telepathy was a lot of bunk, but because of my own experience I am now convinced that there is something to it.

I live in Glendale, California, and my boy friend lives in Buffalo, New York. As you know, it is three hours earlier in California than it is in New York. Well, lately I have been waking up at exactly 4 o'clock every morning, just as though an alarm clock had gone off. It's the craziest thing! I wake up, and when I look at the clock, it's always 4 a.m. sharp. My boy friend says he gets up at 7 a.m. every morning, and the first thing he thinks of when he opens his eyes is me. I KNOW that is what is waking me up. His thought waves are just that powerful. When I tell people this, they look at me like I'm nuts. I KNOW I am right. How can I sleep through his thought waves?

IN LOVE IN GLENDALE
Dear In Love: Don't fight it. Either move into his time zone until you can marry the guy, or ask him not to think of you until 10 a.m. Eastern Standard Time.

Dear Abby: Is it wrong to suggest "money" when relatives ask us what my husband wants for graduation? We are a struggling young couple who have scrimped to put my husband through law school. A number of relatives have asked us what they can give us, and I have simply explained that if they gave us the money, we could put it toward a TV set. We need so many things for our apartment. Our families are now furious because they say we sound money hungry. Most of our relatives would spend around $20 or $25 on a gift anyway. Do you think we committed a breach of etiquette?

CURIOUS
Dear Curious: No. Those who ask what they may give are genuinely interested in giving something practical. Only a hypocrite would ask for a suggestion and then be offended by an honest answer.

Dear Abby: I received an invitation to the graduation of a person I would not know if I saw him on the street. I am certain that he would not know me, either. I know his parents only slightly so I cannot for the life of me understand why I received this invitation. Am I expected to send a gift? Not knowing the person, it would be difficult to select an appropriate gift. I don't want to appear cheap and ignore the invitation. Have you any suggestions?

BEWILDERED
Dear Bewildered: Under the circumstances, a message of congratulations is sufficient.

Confidential to Virginia Beach: I am sorry that the letter signed VIRGINIA BEACH has given you a bad time Virginia in order to conceal the writer's identity. I sometimes use locations instead of names. The item signed VIRGINIA BEACH came from the resort town, Virginia Beach, Virginia. The writer's name is not for publication.

Dodgers Rock Pirates; Mets Down Giants

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The flame in Elroy Face's fork ball appears to be flickering. As a result, he's not putting out fires the way he once did.

Face, not long ago one of the top relief pitchers in the majors, was rocked again Monday night in Pittsburgh's 7-6 loss to the ninth-place Los Angeles Dodgers.

The 36-year-old Pirate right-hander entered the game in the seventh inning just after a four-run rally had tied the Dodgers 5-5. He retired the first batter, but before retiring the side, he walked three batters and gave up two singles, allowing the Dodgers to score two runs which they needed for the victory.

For his brief appearance, Face suffered his third loss in five decisions and had his earned run average soar to 5.23 for 22 games.

Face's showing followed a painful pattern that has developed for the man who won 17 straight games in relief in 1959 and who has averaged 61 appearances a season for the past eight years.

He was called upon June 21 to keep the Pirates close in a game Chicago led 2-0. However, the Cubs lashed him for two runs and three hits in two-thirds of an inning.

On June 12 he replaced starter Bob Veale in the sixth inning after the Cubs had scored two runs and had two more runners on base with two out. Face put another on before Joe Amalfitano beted a grand slam homer.

In other National League games Monday, New York edged San Francisco 4-3, Houston trounced Philadelphia 6-1, Milwaukee downed St. Louis, 7-4 and Cincinnati whipped Chicago 6-1.

In the American League, Baltimore defeated Minnesota 6-3, Chicago knocked off Cleveland 5-1 in 10 innings, Boston nipped Kansas City 4-3 and Washington beat Detroit 5-3.

Frank Howard drove in three runs for the Dodgers, including the winning one with his second sacrifice fly. He also homered. The Pirates, down 5-1, had rallied for a tie on two errors by third baseman Derrell Griffith, two wild pitches by Bob Mille, a walk and singles by Donn Clendenon, Bill Mazeroski, Bob Bailey and Manny Mota.

Jesse Gonder's two-run homer in the ninth off Bob Bolin lifted the Mets to their fifth victory in 4-6, 6-4 decision over unseeded Abe Segal of South Africa Monday.

So far the 23-year-old Texan has lost five sets. All but one have been to lefties. Last year he didn't lose a one on route to the title.

The Wednesday semis have McKinley against Stolle and Emerson, the top-heavy favorite to win it all, playing Bungert. Each is a rematch, Bungert upset Emerson in the quarterfinals last year, then lost to McKinley in the semis. Chuck took the title with a victory over Stolle.

Bungert, possibly Germany's best since World War II, pulled another major surprise Monday, whipping Rafael Osuna, the Mexican-born U.S. national champion in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

Emerson advanced with a matter of fact 6-1, 6-4, 6-4 triumph over fellow Australian Bob Hewitt, while Stolle eliminated Christian Kuhnke of Germany 6-3, 7-5, 6-3.

Orioles Take 7th Straight; Athletics Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dick Radatz a monster? Why that's silly. Any American League batter can tell you that thing Johnny Pesky keeps calling out of the Boston bullpen more like a machine.

Take Monday night for example. Radatz threw 32 pitches at Kansas City Athletics and 24 were strikes. It was his 40th appearance of the year and his 2-1-3 inning sting saved a 4-3 Red Sox victory.

The save, his third in two days, was the 13th of the season for the huge reliever whose 93 strikeouts gave him second best total in the AL. Pesky's man in the bullpen sports a 1.62 earned run average and seems a shoo-in to snap Jim Konstanty's record of 74 appearances in on season.

Pesky has nothing but admiration for his stopper. "He's so important to us," the Red Sox manager says, "it's unbelievable."

Elsewhere in the AL Monday Baltimore stretched its winning streak to seven game with a 6-3 victory over Minnesota, Chicago topped Cleveland 5-1 in 10 innings and Washington defeated Detroit 5-3. New York and Los Angeles were not scheduled.

In the National League, Cincinnati rocked Chicago 6-1, Houston smacked Philadelphia 6-1, Milwaukee beat St. Louis 7-4, New York nipped San Francisco 4-3 and Los Angeles edged Pittsburgh 7-6.

Radatz came on when the Athletics had reached Sox' starter Earl Wilson and reliever Arnold Earley for two runs in the seventh. He got pinch hitter Doc Edwards to fly out and then stifled the Athletics the rest of the way.

Boston shortstop Eddie Bressoud drove in two runs with a double and a triple and scored another after walking. The hits pulled Bressoud's average to .304 and ended a lengthy slump that had dropped him below .300 for the first time this season.

Robin Roberts survived two solo home runs by Tony Oliva and Harmon Killebrew's 28th circuit as the Orioles extended their league lead to 4½ games over the idyl Yankees.

Norm Siebern hammered a two-run shot for the Orioles, who have won 10 of their last 11 game sin their drive to the top.

Sam McDowell had the White Sox blanked for 8 2-3 innings but Mike Hershberger's bases loaded single sent it into extra innings. Chicago then exploded for four runs in th 10th with run-scoring doubles by Tom McCraw and J. C. Martin the key blows.

Jim King clouted a two-run homer and Ed Brinkman delivered a long sacrifice fly to give Washington its victory. It ended a six-game losing streak for the Senators.

Claude Osteen, who won his sixth game, doubled in front of King's 12th homer in the fifth inning. Then Brinkman's sacrifice fly brought Don Lock home with the deciding run in an inning later. Lock had walked and moved up on Mike Brumley's double.

Problems Crop Up at Nat'l AAU Meet

Sportlight-Track
By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — "Ladies and gentlemen," the public address system announced, "two automobiles are parked in the middle of the hammer throw area."
"They should be removed before the start of competition," which sounded like pretty good advice. Their owners apparently thought so, too, doubtlessly envisioning a series of 18-pound weights crashing into finance company's property.
The announcement was the result of just one of a series of problems that beset officials at the National AAU Track and Field Championships last Saturday and Sunday, problems caused either directly or indirectly by the advance of mechanization.
For example, there was some

Federal Aid Endorsed, Ford Claims

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Education Commissioner Arch Ford said Monday night that a National Education Association policies commission has endorsed categorical federal aid to education.
Ford said the NEA's Educational Policies Commission had, within the last 30 days, issued new policy statement endorsing aid for such categories of instruction as English, social studies history and humanities.
Ford said the program would be much the same as the 10th National Defense Education Act which supports science, mathematics and foreign language courses.
Ford, addressing the annual institute of the Arkansas Association for Supervision and Curriculum, urged support of a proposed constitutional amendment to permit the legislature to pass legislation which would permit the support of community colleges by local tax units.
He called the community college system probably the most significant new development in the nation in the last 10 years.
He said 39 states already have passed legislation on community colleges. "I hope Arkansas is not the 40th or 50th state to have such legislation," he said.
sort of super-duper measuring device used for the javelin throw. An announcement was made that this is the device used in international competition, the Olympics and such like and that it's extra fast and terribly accurate and quite the latest thing.
Only they had set it a little bit wrong to start with and didn't discover until the competition was half through that it was measuring 10 feet short.
And then there were the trial heats in the 100-meter dash and the 110-meter hurdles. They were using a new photo timer setup.
So the heats were run and the judges made their picks and the results announced. Reporters busily pounded out the word. Some time later the photos were consulted.
The results in two of the heats were juggled around a bit, prompting a series of highly interesting and extremely colorful comments from the press section.

NATO Likely to Get More Atomic Data

By KARL R. BAUMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson notified Congress today that he has approved a new agreement to extend the types of atomic information the United States may give to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and its member nations.
The new agreement supercedes an earlier one, under which NATO and its members have been receiving some atomic information for the past several years.
In notifying Congress of the new agreement, Johnson said the expanded area of information is needed to make effective use of nuclear delivery systems being provided by this country under bilateral procedures and agreements that followed creation of NATO atomic stockpiles in 1957.
Also, Johnson said, the new agreement will permit NATO member countries to share in information that this country has been exchanging only with the NATO organization itself, under a 1955 agreement.

He said the new agreement "represents a logical and useful step in our continuing and varied efforts to ensure wider allied participation in NATO nuclear defenses."
Furthermore, Johnson said, "such wider participation is necessary on both military and political grounds. It is needed to enhance the effectiveness of NATO defenses. On political grounds, it is needed to reinforce NATO cohesion in meeting our allies' legitimate desire to make a constructive contribution to nuclear defense."
Under the Atomic Energy Act the Joint House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee must have 30 days' notice before the agreement can go into effect.
Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, had recommended the broadening agreement.
In a memorandum to Johnson, they stressed that the new agreement makes clear that there will be no transfer of atomic weapons or atomic weapons systems involving restricted data.

Human Fear Prevents New Technique

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Whole populations can be immunized against disease without the use of needles or pills, a Denver scientist said today, but human fears prevent use of the new technique.
"We have become accustomed to being injected," lamented Dr. Gardner Middlebrook, director of research at National Jewish Hospital in Denver.
He said that mass immunization through airborne vaccines is possible as a means of preventing tuberculosis, polio and measles.
A pioneer in the research of immunizing by inhaling vaccines, Middlebrook developed an airborne infection apparatus several years ago. The device is being used to test this technique on animals at several research centers.
Since 1951 U.S. scientists have made great strides in developing the technique which they call aerogenic immunization. The basis of such inoculation depends on the use of attenuated organisms, living germs which are weakened but which are highly infectious. The organisms are sprayed into a chamber in closely controlled amounts.

A single sniff by a human, Middlebrook says, and he's immune.
The Denver scientist said mass immunizations by the airborne technique could be used theoretically to fight any infectious disease.
A big problem now is development of the highly infective but non-disease producing vaccines.
Once these are produced, then biologists will have to collaborate with engineers—particularly those experienced in ventilation—to determine proper doses for given amounts of air under all conditions.
Bachelor reported ruefully that his date's mother met him at the door, and immediately launched into a discussion of his future prospects, intentions toward her daughter, etc.
That was embarrassing, but what followed was worse.
"No, mother," called down from upstairs. "That isn't the refrigerator news."

Always a Bridesmaid, Is Boyer

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Always a bridesmaid, never a bride. That's Ken Boyer of the St. Louis Cardinals.
Boyer has given the Cardinals nine years of consistent performance that have made him an outstanding third baseman in the National League.
But the big right-hander hitter has never had the sensational year that would take him out of the shadow of Stan Musial, or Hank Aaron, or Willie Mays.
He has never led the league in hitting, or runs batted in, or home runs. He has never been its most valuable player.
"I've always wanted to drive in 100 runs, hit 30 homers and bat .300 in one season," said Boyer, who is probably one of the best all-around third basemen St. Louis has ever had. "I've had them all in separate seasons, but never together."
Boyer hit 32 homers in 1960, he has hit more than .300 five times, and he has driven in 111 runs in a season. His steady play is shown in the last six years in which he has driven in more than 90 runs, hit more than 20 homers and hit more than .285 each season.
He has been named to the National League All-Star team for six straight years, including this season.
At the age of 33, Boyer is off to his greatest year in run production with a chance to step into the spotlight. He leads the league in RBI with 54. Boyer has 12 homers and is hitting .297.
Boyer has averaged more than 150 games a year for the Cardinals, but "that 162-game that 'zip' I had earlier."

Warns Soviet Track Team Is Stronger

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States has a strong track team, maybe its best ever, for the dual meet with Russia next month.
But, Coach Sam Bell quickly points out, that doesn't mean we're home safe. In fact, we could be in trouble.
"The Russian team is a strong one," warned the Oregon State coach who will guide the U.S. team in the meet with Russia's best at Los Angeles July 25-28.
"It's possible our team is the strongest we have ever had and we won't do as well as other times in the past because the Russian team definitely is the strongest it has ever been," Bell said Monday.
The U.S. men have won all five previous meets with Russia. The U.S. team this year will be made up of the first two finishers in each event in last weekend's National AAU championships at New Brunswick, N.J.
And AAU Executive Director Col. Don Hull said some additional names may be added to the team after this weekend's Olympic trials at Randall's Island in New York.
"This is not going to be a friendly joust," Bell said of the Russian meet. "Both teams, both countries, will be going all out. There's a lot at stake."

schedule is rough. "When you work in an office," he said, "you get two days off a week. Think of how it is working seven days a week after week. You can't rest physically or mentally."
"I can feel things I didn't feel two years ago. It's nothing serious, but I don't always have that 'zip' I had earlier."

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

XXXII

Outside, I climbed into my car. But I noticed that there was a trooper in a car who was making an effort not to look at me. Sure enough, when I pulled out he was right behind me. If this kept up I was going to have a parade everywhere I went.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

I drove straight back into the village and stopped at the bar. The trooper parked across the street. I went inside. Eddie Sales was working behind the bar and there were five customers. One of them was Nick Potti. I walked down to where he sat.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

Nick Potti got off his stool and walked to the front as though he were just looking around. But he was casing the outside. It wasn't hard to spot the police cruiser. Nick came over to me.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

"Bartender," he said, "I'd like to buy this gentleman a drink."

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

Eddie Sales came over and poured me a triple. He looked at Nick without any expression. "The gentleman always drinks a triple," he said. "What'll you have?"

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

"Nothing for me," Nick said harshly. He put two dollars on the bar. "Now beat it. I want to talk to the gentleman." He waited until Eddie had retreated to the other end of the bar. Then he turned to look at me. "What's going on, March? You put the state cops on me?"

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

"No," I said. "I play the same rules that you do. It has nothing to do with whether I like you or don't like you. If you think I'm a threat you'll try to kill me. You get in my way and I'll kill you. The cops don't like me any better than they like you. He's out there to find out what I'm doing. I was trying to give you a tip. I don't want the cops to take you—or Jerry. If it has to be done, I'll do my own taking."

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

"Yeah," he said. "You know why I'm here. Jerry knows. Johnny Clark knows. I'm already pretty close. There's not going to be a showdown until I get closer. Then the talk is going to stop. Now that I'm here you don't have to stay on my tail all the time. You know my destination better than I do. If you want to stay with me it's all right. But you're going to collect a man in uniform on your tail, just as I have."

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

He finished his drink and then stalked out.

UNEASY LIES THE DEAD

Eddie Sales came over to me. "How'd you get rid of him?" he asked.

Lodge Seems Hazy About Goldwater

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge came home from Viet Nam to try to stop Sen. Barry Goldwater but from what he said, or rather, refused to say, you might get the impression he wasn't exactly belligerent. But you never can tell.

Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, who is trying to beat Goldwater for the Republican presidential nomination, started off on a no-name basis, too. It took him a while to get steamed up.

Lodge quit his job as U.S. ambassador to help Scranton's fight, arrived here Monday, made a farewell report to President Johnson at the White House, and then held a news conference.

He said the Republicans must not nominate "an imprudent man, an impulsive man." But he wouldn't criticize Goldwater by name. Asked if he regarded the senator as impulsive, Lodge said "people can draw their own conclusions."

When Scranton announced June 12 he was going to campaign for the nomination, making it a clear stop-Goldwater move, he sent the Arizonan a telegram, telling Goldwater how much he respected him, and adding:

"I will say nothing in the weeks ahead to diminish that respect. On the issues, I will be vigorous with all the power at my command. On personalities I will be silent."

But almost at the moment he disclosed this telegram he was calling Goldwater's ideas — without mentioning him by name — a "weird parody" of traditional Republican principles.

He attacked what he referred to as the "shoot from the hip, rather than think from the head foreign policy," again without naming names. As he warmed up he threw out phrases against "radical reactionaries."

Goldwater responded with "I welcome Bill Scranton into the race as one of the outstanding governors of the nation."

Then the senator said that on Dec. 18, 1963 — a couple of weeks before he officially announced his candidacy — he received the following letter from Scranton who is now trying to block him from the nomination:

"I read in the newspapers that you are reappraising your own situation to decide whether to be a candidate for the presidential nomination. I hope you decide to run, and I would like the opportunity, albeit impertinent, to discuss this with you."

Goldwater said they later discussed it. Scranton, asked about this letter after he started running himself, said he had sent a similar letter to two other persons whom he refused to name.

For some days after starting out in pursuit of Goldwater, Scranton didn't mention the senator by name.

But he attacked the "dime store feudalism" of "radicals of the right" and said this is not the time to join "extreme reactionaries who are anything but conservative."

But he warned some of his volunteer workers: "I don't want anybody in the least way getting personal; we need every vote we can get." One of Goldwater's supporters, Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, spoke up shortly afterward.

He must have been having the same thoughts as Scranton for he said if the governor continued to attack the senator and took up posing sides on issues, he might make himself unacceptable to Goldwater's supporters, even if he succeeded in stopping the Arizonan at the Republican convention this month.

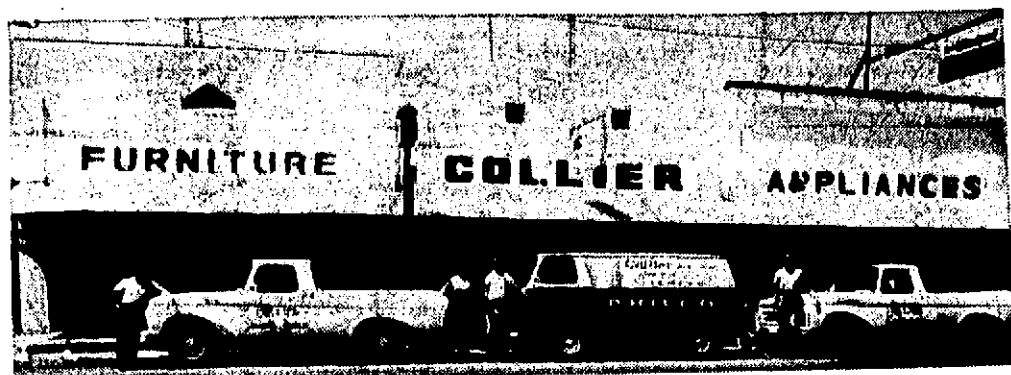

But by last weekend Scranton was criticizing Goldwater by name and, in making one of his sharpest attacks on him, said he lacks the qualities required of a president.

Meanwhile, he had said repeatedly he would support Goldwater if he gets the nomination and runs for the presidency. Since the convention is still two weeks away, Lodge has time to get heated up enough to mention Goldwater by name.

Prisoner Killed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Douglas Wayne Donoho, 33, was fatally shot by guards Saturday as he attempted to escape from the Pulaski County Penal Farm. Deputy Sheriff Elmer Miller said Donoho had been at work with 19 prisoners in the fields. As they returned to the barracks for lunch, he said, Donoho jumped into a thicket and three guards fired one shotgun blast each at him. He was serving time for driving under the influence of alcohol, petit larceny and passing bad checks.

The St. Louis Cardinals won season series from the Pirates, Colts and Mets by the same tally, 13 games to 5.
